A Rare Relic.

Engineer Fred E. Allen of this city recently received an old keepsake from his uncle, Wm. T. Allen, who resides at Columbus, Neb., which is of great interest to all liberty-loving Americans and at the same time traces Mr. Allen's family record back to a man who in this age would see much that fails to equal the standard of liberty he distinguished himself for. The relic is in the form of a razor that was the personal property of General Ethan Allen of Revolutionary war fame, in his letter to Mr. Allen which accompanied the heirloom, the writer says: "This razor must be kept in the Allen family. It was handed from Ethan Allen to John J. Allen, your great grandfather. He handed it down to his son, John B. Allen. Your grandfather, Allen, my father, gave it to me and I to you. Please care for it and hand it down as an old relic of the Allen family. Your great grandfather Allen, was one of the 12 men that marched into Ticonderoga under General Ethan Allen. Ethan had 36 men all told. In that eventful attack he left 16 men to guard the boat, four at the road crossing and four to guard the back gates, that left him 12 men with which to take the fort, which he did, including 64 prisoners, all stores, arms and ammunition. And all this in the words that will always live: "In the name of the great Jehovah and the Continental Congress." The rare old relic is as bright and serviceable as a modern razor and no doubt will often shave the face of the Allen of today. The razor was left at this office by Mr. Allen and may be seen by those interested.

Around the World.

The Herald hereby acknowledges with thanks a copy of Rev. E. C. Horn's work entitled, "Around the World." The edition contains a narrative of a tour of the globe by Dr. Horn, whom it will be remembered, started on that interesting journey while a resident of Alliance. The writer certainly was at his best on the trip and it can be plainly seen in his descriptive writings that little of interest escaped his eye. The book is illustrated with scenes of foreign lands and people that will interest everyone and in short the volume will find a prominent place in many libraries. In the introduction, Dr. Horn refers to this paper, which published his foreign letters, as follows: "Being under exclusive contract with The Alliance Herald as its 'Around the World' representative, numerous courtesies were extended by the press, by our consuls, and by the officials of transportation lines throughout the thirty-thousand-mile journey, space forbidding individual mention."

Rev. C. W. Ray will leave next Monday for a trip through the east, which will include a visit to the world's fair. In Indiana he will call at his old home and spend some time with his parents. Mr. Ray expects to be gone several weeks and we hope he will enjoy his visit to his heart's content. Dr. J. A. Scamahorn of Gordon will have charge of the M. E. congregation during Rev. Ray's absence from the city.

The Dougherty brothers are constructing two brick residences on the eighty acre tract adjoining the townsite on the west which they recently purchased. James' house is located on this side of the railroad and will be 2828 feet, while the one John is building on the other side of the track will be 2626 feet. Geo. M. Fox has the contracts.

W. E. Spencer returned yesterday from a trip through the northwest part of the country. He put in four Empire cream separators this week. W. J. Britton, John Nikont, P. D. Spracklen and Frank Bauer being the purchasers. Mr. Spencer says that two of the machines were sold on the strength of his ad in THE HERALD.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Daniskin, formerly of this county, will regret to learn of the death of their son Irland which occurred at their home in Jacksonville, Ill., of peritonitis last Friday. Irland was fourteen years old and was remarkably bright boy.

Claude Vaughn came home from his college studies at Kansas City last Tuesday and will assist his father in the ranch work. The prairie fire, which recently swept over a portion of the range, made it necessary to have more assistance in the work and hence the young man's return at this date.

Last Saturday was lace day at Bogue's and as a result there was a large crowd at the store to take advantage of the many bargains offered. Tomorrow (Saturday) there will be a special embroidery sale and it will pay all interested in such finery to call and inspect the stock. Read Bogue's ad.

Miss Pearl Liggett, who formerly lived at Hemingford, where she was well known by many friends, was married at Broken Bow, April 18, to Mr. Claud H. Wahl. The friends of the bride will receive the hearty congratulations of her old-time friends from this neighborhood.

Mrs. Sarah Lemons returned last Tuesday from Omaha, where she has been the past six weeks in a hospital undergoing treatment. While she looks rather frail as a result of the confinement she is recovering gradually and will doubtless experience better health than she has for years.

M. H. Patmore, who made his home in this city during the past few weeks, living north of the Catholic church, died Tuesday night after a lingering illness of a dropsical nature and other physical disorders. Mr. Patmore came to Alliance to receive medical treatment, but his condition was such that nothing proved effectual. The deceased came to Nebraska in 1883 from Canada, where he was born in 1843, and settled north of Lakeside. He leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters to mourn his demise. Two of the children were at home with the mother when his death occurred. The funeral took place from the M. E. church Thursday afternoon and was attended by members of the Masonic order of which Mr. Patmore was a member. Several of the brethren from Hyannis being present. The burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

O. E. Searles, representing the fresh meat department of the Cudahy establishment, was registered at the Hilla Grand today, on his way to the "high line" country. We were incidentally advised that there was a "Terrible Swede" coming up this way before long with bad blood in his eye and a gun as big as a canon, looking for an editor. We are glad to say that we are more than thankful for this "hunch" and will make it a point to be out of town at the right time. However, if our life is cut short in the flower of its bloom by one of these traveling men we want to know before it is too late that Jim Gray is to blame for the country's loss.

Miss Fanny McCoy closed a nine months term of school in district No. 124 last Friday. The patrons of the school were present and had the pleasure of listening to a good program given by the pupils. A class of five finished the eighth grade work and passed a creditable examination. Those who received diplomas were Erwin Main, George McCoy, Nellie McCoy, Alice McCoy, and Ethel Phillips. The ladies of the neighborhood contributed their share to the general enjoyment by an elaborate dinner to which the friends and pupils gave ample proof of appreciation. No. 124 may well be proud of their excellent school.

Several lady friends of Mrs. Wm. Mitchell enjoyed the hospitality of her pleasant home last Wednesday afternoon. The hostess is a well known entertainer and those present enjoyed the afternoon spent in this social manner, to the utmost.

Mrs. R. C. Knox entertained sixteen ladies very pleasantly Thursday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Phillips of Casper, Wyo., and Mrs. Ainsworth of Chicago. Euchre was played. Mrs. D. C. Taylor won first prize and Mrs. Benedict second.

Mrs. J. B. Kniest and the boys left Wednesday night for Iowa, where they will visit relatives in different parts of the state. They will be gone the greater part of the summer.

A dance under the auspices of the Lady Macabees will take place on the evening of May 6. The members of the organization are requested to assist in the arrangements at the hall during the afternoon.

Mrs. C. E. Clough of Minnatare paid her friends in this city a visit last week, going then to Omaha last Saturday in company with Mrs. Upton, where they will spend some time with relatives and friends.

W. A. Bissell is enjoying a visit from his sister, Mrs. E. Fulton of Kansas City since Wednesday. They had not seen each other for 15 years.

Wm. O'Mara and John Smith were down from the former's ranch near Moosaw Tuesday. This was Will's first trip to Alliance since November.

C. H. Tully, the good-natured cattle man from Lakeside, was an Alliance visitor Wednesday, taking an armload of THE HERALD'S Special Editions home with him.

Mrs. Geo. Sparks of Omega was a guest at Judge Berry's home several days recently.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. O'Connor next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. B. E. Johnson of Hemingford was in town the first of the week the guest of her sister Mrs. Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Swanson from near Hemingford were in Alliance Tuesday and made this office a pleasant call.

A letter received from W. W. Norton states that they expect to be home next week from their trip to California.

Ernest Olday of Hemingford was in the city yesterday.

For Sale Cheap—Refrigerator, good as new.—Phone 388.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McLean were in from Box Butte yesterday.

John Curran from Sioux county was in the city Monday and Tuesday.

For Rent—The Pearson house, across street from high school. Apply at this office.

OTHERS PRAISE IT

Comments on The Herald's Special Edition Continue and Congratulations are Many.

MARVELOUS TRANSFORMATION.

Columbus Telegram: Last week The Alliance Herald issued an illustrated edition which surpassed anything of the kind ever attempted in Nebraska. It was a picture story of the marvelous transformation of western Nebraska, tracing things from the dominating day of the Indians down to the present day of prosperity on the farm and on the ranch. And the wonderful development of that new country has been due not more to natural advantages than to the presence of such men as Editor O'Keefe, whose push and enterprise have carried the tidings of goods things in western Nebraska to all the world.

A VALUABLE ADVERTISEMENT.

St Paul Republican: T. J. O'Keefe, publisher of The Alliance Herald, is to be congratulated on the edition just issued. From every standpoint it is a creditable achievement and one of which any publisher might well be proud. It will prove a valuable advertisement for northwestern Nebraska and Mr. O'Keefe is entitled to something more substantial than thanks from the property owners of that section.

CONGRATULATIONS.

Crete Democrat: The Industrial edition of The Alliance Herald issued April 8, is one of the neatest from a typographical, mechanical and illustrated point of view we have seen in a long time. Editor O'Keefe is one of the wide awake newspaper men who have made money in the business. We congratulate him on the fine display of good taste and sensible writeups of the citizens and business interests of that lively young city.

HAVE TO HUSTLE TO BEAT IT.

The Chicago Newspaper Union, through its manager, sends the following words of praise regarding the Special Edition: I am in receipt of copy of the illustrated edition of your paper, and wish to thank you for your kind remembrance. Also want to congratulate you very heartily upon the splendid appearance of this number. It is the best thing of the kind I have ever seen, and I think any publisher in a town no larger than Alliance from Maine to California would have to hustle to equal it.

WHAT SAM POTTER THINKS OF IT.

Under date of April 23, the well known manager of the Great Western Type foundry, Omaha, Sam J. Potter, indulges in the following praise: "A few days ago I had the pleasure of receiving a copy of your Illustrated Industrial Edition of the Alliance Herald, and, after carefully looking it over, I want to say to you, without flattery, that I think your paper is not only one of the best, but that it is the best illustrated paper I have seen printed in the state. You certainly have reason to be proud of the success you have made of the Herald since establishing it in Alliance, two years ago, and the community in which you live should congratulate itself on having such a wide-awake and enterprising newspaper man as among them."

TO THE HONOR OF THE EDITOR.

E. P. Berryman, secretary of the Jacksonian Club of Nebraska, writes in the following happy vein on behalf of the organization regarding the Herald's Special Edition: "I am pleased to acknowledge, for myself and for the club members, receipt of your mammoth issue of April 8. It is a production in every way to the honor of its editors and shows that the business men of Alliance are fully alive to the merits of the great advertising they, as well as the city, get from such an issue. The writer can hardly realize from the trips he used to make commercially through that territory in the eighties, that such a growth is possible, and although not from Missouri, I must admit I am believing by seeing the great progress your newspaper shows has taken place. Tell our good friend Smyser he still retains his good looks and youth, which is evidence that alkali water will agree with a democrat when taken in homeopathic doses. Regardless of politics, the other officials of Box Butte county show a remarkable degree of good looks and since your lady superintendent of schools is a partial product of Omaha educational institutions we realize the attainment which will accrue to teachers and scholars under her supervision. I have suggested to several of our bachelor attorneys that you had a few 'Waiting for a Home' in your locality and if the 'Barrellfull,' as you illustrate, is a sample of the beauty of your land you may not be surprised to see a few of the aforesaid bachelors emigrating to Box Butte county. We shall hope in due course of time that those two little Misses, Sarah O'Keefe and Agnes Newberry will convert Master Glen Miller to pure democracy if he has not already been started the right way. Those members of the Bar Tenders' Union are a handsome lot of fellows. I should make a guess that they had originated from Omaha. In this issue you make it appear that the editor is a busy man and by the way he gets busy when he visits the Jacksonian banquet in Omaha we shall presume that the photographer caught him at his real work. We shall sincerely hope the good work will go on and you will find it expedient to issue this great advertising Herald quarterly. Do not forget your friends when you do. We shall hope to meet you at the state convention in June and hope to find that the morning after November 5th you can cover the outside pages of your Herald with roosters instead of Indians."

Adjudged Insane

Dr. Edwards was called to the ranch of Levi Rubottom Saturday night and found Mrs. Rubottom's condition so serious that it was necessary to bring her before the insanity board Monday. Her mind has been affected for a long time but most seriously for the last three weeks. She was adjudged insane and taken to the asylum at Lincoln Tuesday, accompanied by the sheriff and Mrs. Geo. Fox.

Roller Skating.

After May 1, the Alliance roller skating rink will be open only on Wednesday and Saturday nights.

The celebrated "Justice Brands" of chocolate and cocoa preparations made by William H. Baker, Syracuse, received a special boost in this territory by the firm's special representative, E. D. Robertson, who in company with Mr. Gray of Donald & Porter, made the Sheridan trip together and as a result there will be hundreds of families and others using the Baker goods for the trade was well supplied with orders.

City Marshal Shay arrested a deserter from Ft. Mackenzie last evening. The prisoner would not admit his guilt for sometime but finally "fessed up." He is colored, of small stature and is said to be a desperate character, having made his escape from the guard house by knocking out an officer. The marshal left with his prisoner for Sheridan today.

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was the card party given by Miss Iva Bellwood Wednesday evening, her friend Miss Gray being the guest of honor. There were about forty young people present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. J. E. Zbinden returned from New York Monday leaving her mother improved but word received yesterday states that she is worse again. Mr. Zbinden also returned yesterday from Utica where he was called to the bedside of his mother who recovered sufficiently for him to return.

Mrs. Richard Brennan came over from the ranch near Orlando last Tuesday and remained until Thursday, when she returned home with May and Norman Newberry who will enjoy country life for a few days.

Miss Ellen Hickey arrived last week from Omaha and has opened dressmaking parlors at the residence of G. W. Young. Miss Hickey has had many years experience in the work. She is a relative of P. H. Dillon.

H. Wilkes and son Elmer and C. Beutler, all of Sweetwater, Neb., were in Alliance yesterday enroute to Grand Junction, Colo., where they contemplate investing in real estate. They are old-time friends of J. E. Zbinden.

W. A. Manchester returned Tuesday from a visit of several weeks at Lincoln and Omaha. He left last night for Chicago.

C. E. McFall was up from Lakeside Tuesday. THE HERALD acknowledges a call.

C. A. Posvar, deputy county assessor of Lawn precinct, is in the city today on business.

Miss Kate Fisher arrived today from Hastings to visit Misses Minnie and Agnes Morris.

Mrs. A. T. Phillips of Casper, Wyo., has been the guest of Mrs. Charles Leetch for the past week.

Marcus Frankle and little daughter are spending the week in Denver.
